(New York, New York – October 31, 2023) The Soufan Center names former Deputy Commissioner of Intelligence & Counterterrorism of the New York Police Department, John Miller, as a new member of its board of directors.

“I am honored to join the team guiding the next chapter of The Soufan Center’s work,” said Mr. Miller. “The perspectives offered by The Soufan Center are much needed today and I look forward to working with my fellow board members in growing TSC’s presence and impact on global security conversations.”

Since 2022, Mr. Miller has served as the Chief Law Enforcement and Intelligence Analyst for CNN. He is a veteran award-winning journalist and experienced law enforcement and intelligence executive. Prior to joining CNN, he served as Deputy Commissioner of Intelligence & Counterterrorism of the New York Police Department (NYPD), where he oversaw the Intelligence Bureau, the Counterterrorism Bureau, and the NYPD's partnership with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) NYPD Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF).

Ali Soufan, Founder of The Soufan Center, welcomed the appointment. “TSC’s Board of Directors will benefit immeasurably from John’s experience working at the intersection of security and media. Global security challenges today are both diffuse and diverse, and there is an increasingly important communications dimension. The TSC team looks forward to working with John on the rewarding work ahead,” said Mr. Soufan.

Mr. Miller’s appointment comes alongside that of former Special Assistant to the President, Col. Chris Costa \(Ret\), who also joined The Soufan Center’s Board of Directors.
